Use of information

During the application process we will share the personal data provided in this form, typically your personal and contact details along with your bank account number and date of birth, with selected Credit Reference Agencies for the purposes of verifying your identity and nominated bank account. The details of the agencies we use and their privacy policies can be found within our Privacy Notice on our website. A record of this initial "soft search" will be kept on our file and will leave a non-detrimental footprint on your credit file, which will not be viewable by any other organisation. We do not base our decisions solely on this information, and so we may ask you to provide additional information if the electronic search is not successful. The online application process itself is run by Sandstone Technology (Europe) Limited and you can find out more about how they process your data within our Privacy Notice on our website. We may involve other trusted third parties in the processing of your personal data and where we do so we make this clear in our Privacy Notice.

Once you become a Charity Bank saver, we will stay in touch with you:

- · by post, phone and email, as necessary to run and monitor your account (service notifications); and
- by the channel(s) you have selected below to:
  - o invite you to our annual Impact Awards ceremony an opportunity to meet people from some of the wonderful organisations to which we are providing loan finance, supported by our savers; and
  - o send you our e-newsletter from time to time, with inspiring case studies, thought provoking blogs and our latest news, events and offers, so that you can see how savings accounts are being used to support charities and social enterprises across the UK and become part of the wider Charity Bank community. All emails include an unsubscribe link and you may object to receiving this communication at any time. Please note that this can only be sent to you by email and so if you do not select email, you will not receive the e-newsletter.
